

Gerald Gordon Seminar in Criminal Law
Thursday 10th June 2010
Raeburn Room, Old College, University of Edinburgh
Programme

10.30am Registration (coffee available)

11.00am Welcome and introduction

11.00am-12.30pm

Retrial after a quashed conviction: 401 cases in search of a thesis:

James Chalmers and Fiona Leverick

The criminalisation of smoking: Pamela Ferguson

12.30pm-1.30pm: Lunch

1.30pm-3.45pm

DNA databases and criminal justice: lessons from Scotland:

Liz Campbell

Transferred intent and unintended objects: Tim Jones

Knowing it when we see it? The role of non-consent, coercion and exploitation in recent criminal justice responses to sexual violence: Vanessa Munro

3.45-4.15pm: Coffee

4.15pm-5.45pm

Recklessness: an 'utter disregard' for clarity in definition?: Findlay Stark

Dealing with criminal attempts: William Wilson

Dinner in evening: details to be confirmed

Directions

Directions to Old College can be found at

<http://www.law.ed.ac.uk/visitors/travelinformation.aspx>

To reach the Raeburn Room, go into the main quadrangle of Old College (from South Bridge) and through the main entrance on your left. You then turn left again (past a reception desk, where staff will be able to give you directions if required) and the room is down the corridor on your right.