

THE LAW AND POLICY OF CLIMATE CHANGE

The Business of Climate Change
University of Edinburgh
2 June, 2009

Navraj Singh Ghaleigh / Lynne Ross
Lecturer in Public Law, Edinburgh Law School
n.ghaleigh@ed.ac.uk

Edinburgh Law School - People

- Alan Boyle
- Navraj Singh Ghaleigh
- Lynne Ross
- Elisa Morgera

Summary

- Current Research
- Current Engagements
- CPD - range of issues

Current Research

- International regulation and reform
- Domestic regulation (UK and Scottish)
- EU ETS
- Litigation

Current Consultancy

- Meeting point of CC and energy regulation
- Emerging international CC regime
- Tracking developments at UNFCCC and parallel processes
- Analyse business impacts and assist strategy development
- Relationship with EU and UK law and policy
- Impacts on existing EU ETS and CDM

Continuing Professional Development

- Structure
- Content
  - Phase 3 EU ETS
  - Carbon budgeting process under Climate Change Act (UK) and Scottish Bill and role of Committee on Climate Change
  - Decarbonisation policy for energy generation
  - Regulation which aims to deliver emission reduction across the non-traded sectors, including: (1) transport, (2) heat and energy savings strategy.